If Jesus told you that you were one of the
Two witnesses and was going to be killed
And be hated would you pray as Jesus did?

Luke 22.42. Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done.

Come on now, you pray this when you claim healing.

There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's,
even so are we Christ's.

E ven when the times are hard

Fierce winds are bound to blow
God is forever able
Hold on to what you know.

Imagine life without His love
Joy would cease to be
Keep thanking
Love imparts to thee.

Move out of "Camp Complaining"
No weapon that is known
On earth can yield the power
Praise can do alone.

Quit looking at the future
Redeem the time at hand
Start every day with worship
To "thank" is a command.

Until we see Him coming
Victorious in the sky
We'll run the race with gratitude
Exalting God most high.

Yes, there will be good times and yes some will be bad, but Zion waits in glory, where none are ever sad!

And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine.

As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.
